1. Objective

To set clear goals, give regular feedback, rate performance fairly and link pay, promotion and development to performance.

2. Applies to

All employees confirmed or on probation with at least 3 months in the cycle.

3. Cycle

The financial year runs from 1 April to 31 March. There are two half-yearly cycles: H1 (April to September, reviewed in October) and H2 (October to March, reviewed in April). Salary revisions take effect on 1 April, based on the H2 review. Promotions are considered in April, with exceptional off-cycle promotions possible in October.

4. Goals

Within 3 weeks of the start of each cycle, every employee agrees 3 to 5 OKRs (objectives and key results) with the manager in ZenPeople. Goals are reviewed at monthly one-to-ones.

5. Ratings

Rating	Meaning
1	Needs improvement
2	Partially meets expectations
3	Meets expectations
4	Exceeds expectations

5	Outstanding

No more than 10 percent of a department may be rated 5 in a cycle.

6. Calibration

After manager reviews, the department head and the HR Business Partner calibrate ratings across the department to keep standards consistent. Ratings are shared with employees only after calibration.

7. H1 FY2026-27 calendar

Step	Dates
Self-review window	5 October to 16 October 2026
Manager reviews	19 October to 30 October 2026
Calibration	2 November to 6 November 2026
Feedback conversations	9 November to 20 November 2026
Results visible in ZenPeople	By 27 November 2026

8. Rating of 1 or 2 and PIP

An employee rated 1, or rated 2 in two consecutive cycles, is placed on a Performance Improvement Plan under Phase 2 of the Progressive Discipline Policy (ZEN-POL-004).

9. Special situations

- Employees on maternity or other long leave are rated pro-rata on the period worked and are not penalised for the absence (ZEN-POL-003).
- Employees serving notice are not eligible for increments or promotion.
- New joiners with less than 3 months in the cycle are reviewed in the next cycle.
